

2014 Schedule of Events

Friday, April 11th

- 9:00 am – 5:00 pm: (School Days) 18th Century Market Fair and Demonstrations in the Old Bardstown Village, Eastern Native Encampment and Displays, Additional Market Fair Vendors and Encampment at Wickland Estate.
- 11:00 am – Native Area – Native Trade Scenario
- 12:00 Noon – Wickland Mansion – Speaking Presentation by Daniel Boone, Frontier Hero.
- 12:30 am – Native Area – Native Trade Scenario
- 9:00 am – 3:00 pm: Tomahawk range open to public at the Old Bardstown Village.
- 9:00 am – 3:00 pm: Primitive Archery and Atlatl Range open to the public.
- 5:00 pm – Till Closing: 18th Century Tavern Night at the Old Talbott Tavern (C. 1779) and the Henri Chapeze house (C. 1787). Yes, we now have two 18th century pubs, less than a block apart, to visit and enjoy an evening of 18th century merriment. Re-enactors, bring your musical instruments, pub games, etc. as we create our own entertainment in these original 18th century buildings. Drinks and dinner can be ordered individually from the menu at the Talbott. Diner is by reservation only at the Chapeze house, but the bourbon bar is open all evening. The old pub at the Talbott is reserved for those dressed in period attire only, however, the public is welcome to drop by and enjoy the main dining areas, bourbon bar, and take a photo with the re-enactors milling about. Be sure to visit both establishments during your 18th Century pub night.

Saturday, April 12th

- 9:00 am – 5:00 pm: 18th Century Market Fair in the Old Bardstown Village, Eastern Native Encampment and Displays, Additional Market Fair Vendors and Encampment at Wickland Estate.
- Recurring throughout the day: Historical demonstrators throughout the village. 18th Century Ballads sung by John Hagee and Jake Book. At Wickland Estate: 18th Century Market Fair and Artillery Demonstrations.
- 11:00 am – Old Bardstown Village – Native Trade Scenario.
- 11:30 am – Old Bardstown Village - Speaking Presentation by Mad Anne Bailey, an 18th Century Female Heroine of the Frontier.
- 1:00 pm – Wickland Estate - Speaking Presentation by Daniel Boone, Frontier Hero.
- 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm: Competitive Rifle Frolic at Rock Quarry just outside of town. Registration and details available at the event admission table.
- 2:30 pm – Old Bardstown Village – Native Cabin Raid and Running the Gauntlet.
- 10:00 am – 12:00 am & 2:00 pm – 3:00 pm: Tomahawk range open to public, open all day for event participants. May open for public at other times if range master is present.
- 5:00 pm – Till Closing: 18th Century Tavern Night at the Old Talbott Tavern (C. 1779) and the Henri Chapeze house (C. 1787). A repeat of Friday night for those who missed it and those who didn't get enough of the merriment. Re-enactors, bring your musical instruments, pub games, etc. Drinks and dinner can be ordered individually from the menu at the Talbott. Diner is by reservation only at the Chapeze house, but the bourbon bar is open all evening. The old pub at the Talbott is reserved for those dressed in period attire only, however, the public is welcome to drop by and enjoy the main dining areas, bourbon bar, and take a photo with the re-enactors milling about. Be sure to visit both establishments during your 18th Century pub night.

Sunday, April 13th

- 9:00 am – 4:00 pm: 18th Century Market Fair in the Old Bardstown Village, Eastern Native Encampment and Displays, Additional Market Fair Vendors and Encampment at Wickland Estate, 18th Century Speakers, Demonstrators and Entertainers recurring throughout the day.
- Recurring throughout the day: Historical demonstrators throughout the village. 18th Century Ballads sung by John Hagee and Jake Book. At Wickland Estate: 18th Century Market Fair and Artillery Demonstrations.

- 11:00 am – Sunday Services in the Log Chapel with the Parson. Attend an authentic 18th Century Sermon and Sunday Services.
- 12:00 am – Old Bardstown Village – Native Trade Scenario.
- 1:00 pm – Wickland Estate - Speaking Presentation by Daniel Boone, Frontier Hero.
- 2:30 pm – Old Bardstown Village – Native Cabin Raid and Running the Gauntlet.
- 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm: Tomahawk range open to public, open all day for event participants. May open at other times if range master is present.